

House Resolution 2149

By: Representative Ralston of the 7th

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing April 18-24, 2010, as Crime Victims' Rights Week at the state capitol; and for 2 other purposes.

3 WHEREAS, 21 million Americans suffer the indignity of crime each year and may 4 experience emotional, physical, psychological, and financial harm as a result; and

5 WHEREAS, a just nation acknowledges crime's impact on individuals, families, and 6 communities, and ensures that victims are treated with fairness, dignity, and respect as they 7 interact with the criminal justice system; and

8 WHEREAS, 25 years ago, the President's Task Force on Victims of Crime drew attention 9 to the poor treatment of victims in the criminal justice system, calling it "indifferent" to 10 victims' needs; and

11 WHEREAS, a decades-long struggle to balance the scales of justice resulted in victims' rights 12 laws in every state and more than 32 state constitutional victims' rights amendments that 13 enshrine the ideals of fairness, dignity, and respect for the victims of crime; and

14 WHEREAS, treating victims with dignity serves the public interest by engaging victims in 15 the justice system, inspiring respect for public authorities, and promoting confidence in 16 public safety; and

17 WHEREAS, there is more to be done to advance these ideals as too many victims are denied 18 their right to attend trial, present an impact statement at sentencing, or receive notice of the 19 release of an offender; and

20 WHEREAS, further action is needed to ensure the fair treatment of crime victims, including 21 protecting child and sexual assault victims, ordering and ensuring victim restitution from 22 offenders, and notifying victims of their right to compensation and services; and

23 WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week provides an opportunity to raise 24 awareness of the foundation of victims' rights and to ensuring that all victims are afforded 25 their legal rights and provided with assistance as they face the financial, physical, and 26 psychological impact of crime; and

27 WHEREAS, it is abundantly fitting and proper that Georgia participate in National Crime
28 Victims' Rights Week.

29 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that 30 the members of this body recognize April 18-24, 2010, as Crime Victims' Rights Week at the 31 state capitol.

32 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized 33 and directed to transmit appropriate copies of this resolution to members of the public and 34 the press.
